Welcome to One Day Cruise (One day)

Activity information

⇒ We pick you up from your hotel early in the morning in order to take you by coach to the port for embarkation on the cruise ship.

⇒ At 08:15 the cruise ship departs and sails for the first stopover on the island of Hydra. You will spend approximately one hour, thus you have free time to explore the unique island.

⇒ Embarkation and sail to the island of Poros. Leisure time in Poros will be approximately 60 minutes.

⇒ After two hours trip we shall arrive to the last port, the island of Aegina, where you have time either to make an optional tour visiting the Athena Afea Temple or to swim to the nearest beaches of the island. Total time to be spent one hour and a half.

⇒ Lunch is served on board during the voyage.

⇒ Re-embarkation and sailing back to the port.

⇒ Arrive late in the afternoon and transfer by coach back to your hotel

ISLANDS CLOSE TO ATHENS

Hydra, Poros, Aegina,: the islands near Athens, with history, style and distinguished visitors are ideal for a quick getaway all year round.

Hydra. The aristocratic island of Hydra invites you to experience its beauty that has enchanted international jet setters, artists like Chagall and Picasso and musicians like the late great Leonard Cohen. The port town is cosmopolitan and elegant, with its 18th-century mansions, captains' homes, old churches, and marble-flagged steps that serve as streets on this steep island. A trip to take you back in time.

Poros. A place beloved by Seferis, the Greek Nobel laureate, and ground-breaking writer Henry Miller, with its beautiful nature, vintage charm and peaceful ambience. A stone's throw from Galata on the mainland, in Poros you'll find small tavernas, yacht marinas, neoclassical buildings, a clock tower, pine forests reaching the sea, serenity and relaxation.

Aegina. Just an hour from the port of Piraeus, Aegina is the island closest to Athens. Here you'll enjoy ancient temples, stone-built Byzantine churches, a delightful old-fashioned port town, delicious local pistachio nuts, and a swimming season that lasts until late autumn. This charming, welcoming island will entice you as it has thousands of others from around the world, who have chosen to make it their second home.
